

BACK HOME - JAMES SOREN/JOSEPH FARBER

LAZY HIP-HOP GROOVE

KEY: G

G A7

I'm back home, finally

Cmaj7

I missed more than I could even know, like

G

A7

The way the coffee that my momma makes in my house tastes,

Bb/C

And the city when it starts to snow

G

A7

Bb7

I swear to God that the water never tasted any better

B7

C7

And the bagels and the bacon egg and cheeses never fresher

G

A7

Man, there's not another place that I would rather be instead of

Right here, right now there's not a single competitor

BACK HOME - JAMES SOREN/JOSEPH FARBER

G

A7

For the city I know, and the people I miss

Csus2

When I'm a-way all I do is think about you

G

A7

So now we're finally home, till next se-mester, I guess

Csus2

So now you know I gotta sing a song about you

G

They say, "Sleep more than you study"

D

Study more than you party

A7

Csus2

Party as much as any person possibly can

D

Keep all of your money, re-member to do your laundry

A7

C7

And don't forget the places where your story began"

G

They say, "Sleep more than you study"

I wake up, on a fold-out couch

Cmaj7/Bb

Because my brother's in my old room now

G

A7

But the ferries and the trains haven't changed one bit

C

And they kinda feel like home somehow

G A7
'Cause when I'm sitting and fidgeting with my fingers on the Four

C
Going uptown the sound of "Stand clear of the closing doors"

G A7
Takes me back to every morning, I've heard it all before

C
It's like déjà vu with a loop plus an encore

G
Because the city I know

A7
But the people I miss

C
Is all I see when I'm looking around

G A7
So, if there's anything that I would wanna see now I'm back,

C
Now it's my family together in the crowd

G

They say, "Sleep more than you study"

D

Study more than you party

A7

Csus2

Party as much as any person possibly can

Keep all of your money, re-member to do your laundry
